WORDS OF ENCOURAGEMENT

Jesus said “ . . . And be sure of this, I am with you always, even to the end of age.”
Matthew 28:20 NLT

SPOTLIGHT ON A POSITIVE STORY

Hindolo Thomas is a native of Eatonville, Florida. He is a 2015 graduate of Edgewater High School where he was a member of the Engineering, Science and Technology (EST) magnet program. Hindolo graduated with honors and will be attending the University of Central Florida. Even though this is his first year of college, he will be classified as a Sophomore. He plans to double-major in Biomedical Sciences and Music.

Apart from being academically gifted, he is talented in music. Hindolo is a Master Cellist in the Orchestra. He also served as President of Edgewater’s Orchestra. Hindolo has mastered playing different African drums, the Contra Bass, the Bass Guitar and the Tuba. He was the Tuba section leader in Edgewater’s Marching Band. Hindolo is an active member of St. Lawrence AME’s Church Junior Church where he is the Bass Guitar player for the Junior Choir, and is a Junior Usher. Hindolo holds many Memberships, such as: Tri-M (a Music honor society); BETA Club (an Academic honor society); Knights of Pythogaas (KOP); and Boy Scouts of America (BSA). He officially earned the rank of Eagle Scout, the highest and most prestigious rank a Boy Scout can earn.

It gives great pleasure knowing that such a fine young man was nurtured in the Eatonville community. May his journey into life and manhood continue to be positive and productive.
